

One Door Leads Home – If you are experiencing a HOUSING CRISIS OR HOMELESSNESS in Morris County, there is help.

Morris County’s approach involves a coordinated effort. Community service partners focused on ending homelessness in Morris County are working together to find real solutions that will bring you closer to home with every step.

If you are in need of shelter or housing resources, contact us in one of the following ways to get started. These outlets are the ONLY forms of entry into most shelter and housing programs in Morris County.

- Dial 2-1-1 to reach NJ 2-1-1
Hours: 24/7
What to expect: A phone conversation; referrals for housing assistance; and additional referrals to services to help with both basic needs and emergent situations.

- Go to *Our Promise (Drop-in Center)
Address: 51 Washington Street, Morristown, NJ (The First Baptist Church)
Hours: M-F 1:00 pm-5:00 pm
What to expect: This is a drop-in center where you will find access to case managers and social work staff and receive help navigating the system, including assistance in a phone conversation with 2-1-1 call specialists. Our Promise also serves as a warming and cooling center, provides toiletries and hygiene items, benefits screening, computer access, charging stations, and mail service.

- Go to *Edna’s Haven (Drop-in Center)
Address: 123 East Blackwell Street, Dover, NJ (Trinity Lutheran Church)
Hours: M-F 12:30 pm-4:30 pm
What to expect: This is a drop-in center where you will find access to social work staff and receive help navigating the system, including assistance in a phone conversation with 2-1-1 call specialists. Edna’s Haven also helps with basic needs, provides supportive counseling, refreshments, access to phones and newspapers, and mail service.

