

Jersey Battered Women's Service, Inc.
President & CEO - 2017

Position Summary:

Jersey Battered Women's Service's (JBWS') Board of Directors seeks a President & CEO who will be responsible for implementation of the strategic plan, operations of the agency, and the agency's ongoing financial health. The successful candidate will ensure the organization delivers high-quality crisis interventions, client support and educational programs in a manner that meets or exceeds program objectives. Additionally, the successful candidate will actively participate in fund raising and influence policy and legislation to further the mission of the organization.

Essential leadership characteristics include: passion, integrity, credibility, initiative, vision, competence, and responsiveness.

Key areas of responsibilities are:

- General & Financial Management
- Resource (Fund) Development
- Public Relations and Advocacy
- Staff Management
- Program Development
- Board of Directors Communications and Engagement

Location:

Based in Morris County, New Jersey

Qualifications:

- An advanced degree in Business or Social Work is preferred, with substantial non-profit organization leadership experience.
- Demonstrated leader with supervisory skills and success having led multiple functions.
- Knowledge of domestic violence and problems faced by abuse victims and their families preferred
- Grant writing and grants management experience.
- Fund raising and public relations skills.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.

For more information: See the full job profile here.

To apply: Submit cover letter, resume, and salary requirements to cmcinerney@jbws.org.